FRIDAY, JUNE 29, 1894.

EUBSCRIPTIONSTOTHE EVENING WORLD Vol. 84......No. 12,001 will faithfully represent to Entered at the Post-Office at New York as second BRANCH OFFICES: WORLD UPTOWN OFFICE-Junction of Broad-WORLD HARLEM OFFICE-1986 st.

-BROOKLYN-309 Washington PHILADELPHIA, Pa.-Inquirer Office, 929 Cheer

May, 1894 THE WORLD'S BANNER MONTH FOR CIRCULATION. Average Per Day: 463,191.

Readers of THE EVENING WORLD leaving the city for the hot months should send in their adcreece and have THE EVENING WORLD masted a them regularly.

25,033 Per Day.

Home rule for New York will not be

No "straight" local ticket. Good New Yorkers for a better New York.

Horatius Hill lost the bridge after all And the income tax still stands.

In union for good government is the strength to overthrow corrupt bossism. The chances are that the end of Mr.

Croker's being "pestered" is yet faaway. "Reform or your life" appears to have en the pleasant Brockway method of putting it. The Hill that stood in the way of the Now, if the Yale athletes abroad can beat the Oxford strong men, the glory of "old Eli" will be complete.

Must Justice Divver worry through the Summer without having had his opportunity before the Lexow Committee?

Mr. Croker is coming back where he got it without telling how he got it. The record of his transactions in horseflesh, real estate and stock farms gives some clue as to when he got it. will be ready for the people in Novem-ber. Are you doing your part to make sure that the people will be ready for

They were two glorious victories that men did push the winners. Hasn't the lot of light-weights got material worthy a great university?

In its very first plank the Good Gov ernment Club's platform declares for aplete separation of municipal elections from the State and National you. That is the plank by which to test as an illegal charge of twenty-five dolthe sincerity of the Constitutional Convention at Albany, in the cause of municipal reform.

Senator O'Connor, of the Lexow Com nittre, says he would like to see Flatt elected Governor. "But, of course," he THAT SKIRT-DANCING THUNDER-SICRY. be says: "The only remedy I can sug-post is a new charger, which a Republi-can Legislature, backed by a Republi-and then hurried away, leaving us cant. can Governor, will probably give the ing and perspiring and wondering the Animal Had Created Terror in city," This point is certainly calculated whether it truly loved us, or was only West Third Street. boss himself.

editorially: "It cannot solate the rural present writing we don't know what its voters to reflect that the whole election barometric bearings are, or whether or machinery of New York City is in the hands of the police force which is proved borness, and umbrella street with a shot from his revolver. voluce the rural voters' to reflect that is fooling us. Or is it only flirting with responsible legislators, elected through Forecaster Dunn's votes, have held and exercised. Four after year, the power of conducing Eventral year after year, the power of continuing | Letters are coming pientifully to "The every day. Rural voters may "solace" with the thought that New Fork City is ready and willing to run its own affairs for itself and separate its particular election issues from those of the precious privilege.

WHAT IT MEANS.

Mr. Croker complains that he has been postered by reporters. He refused to be interviewed before he sailed for home on the Majestie. But he will find two dis journalists on board, who World's" readers an illustrated history of his six days' trip, and all he said or did that interests the people of New York or can throw any light on the mystery of his sudden going and com

There is a conviction in the minds of our home politicians that Mr. Croker Visitars to Done Pulliver Suiding comes to resume control of the Tam- Hopeful Circle, Ring's Daughters many organization-if he can get it. He Ruth Stafford. does not like the complexion matters Luis Lyons and others took us soon as he left for the Grand Four Willis avenue friends Prix, and he feared that a still grander be prize was likely to be lost to him and is friends forever if he remained away. His coming makes it more probable han ever that the "straight" Republican ticket policy will be persevered in Read what an "Evening World" phyby the Platt Republicans. an again seize control of Tammany, a are Summering in New York: bargain can readily be made to give the State to the Plattites and the city to the

are summering in New York:

"It is hard to describe the effect hot straight on readily be made to give the State to the Plattites and the city to the State to the Plattites and the city to the State to the Plattites and the city to the State to the Plattites and the city to the State to the Plattites and the city to the State to the Plattites and the city to the State to the Plattites and the city to the State to the Plattites and the city to the State to the Plattites and the city to the State to the Plattites and the city to the State to the Cook and the State to the State to the Cook and the State to the State to the Guern upon the blift of an heir to the grands son, the Juske of York.

Mr. Hardie criticised the custom requiring the presence of the Home Secretary on such occasions as one requiring the presence of the Home Secretary on such occasions as one requiring the presence of the Home Secretary on such occasions as one requiring the presence of the Home Secretary on such occasions as one requiring the presence of the Home Secretary on such occasions as one requiring the presence of the Home Secretary on such occasions as one requiring the presence of the Home Secretary on such occasions as one requiring the presence of the Home Secretary on such occasions as one requiring the presence of the Home Secretary on such occasions as one requiring the presence of the Home Secretary on such occasions as one requiring the presence of the Home Secretary on such occasions as one requiring the presence of the Home Secretary on such occasions as one requiring the presence of the Home Secretary on such occasions as one requiring the presence of the Home Secretary of the State to the S income tax proved not a mountainous still:" but the end of the struggle was evidently near. A day has made the safes to our address and we will try to fill it. cartoon historical. Before the setting of yesterday's sun, Horatius Hill was street. driven from the bridge and was left floundering in the waters of defeat, with a majority of 40 to 24-nearly two to one-piled on his head. Senator Horatius Hill's final motion to kill the income tax was defeated yesterday, only one Democrat besides the faithful Murphy veting with him. This obstruction being out of the way the effort to prevent action on the tariff now devolves on Senator Hoar. But it is not probable that there will be much further delay, and the end seems near. Let us hope that when it is reached The new Rapid Transit Commission is the disfigurements of the Wilson bill getting right down to business and to by the Senate will be at least partially

PROTECTING COMMERCE

Dockmasters Monaghan and who were implicated in Mr. McLaren's testimony before the Lexow Committee, have resigned. Mayor Güroy's determithe Tale boys won at New London yes-nation that the charges preferred by Mr. terday. But how those Columbia Fresh-McLaren should be made officially belege that can produce such a sturdy the removal of the men, brought about Monaghan's resignation yesterday. had previously resigned.

This is a practical result due to the Lexow investigation. It is one of some value, too. The commerce of the port is a great deal too beavily burdened with enactions authorized by law without be-ing subjected to such illegal "strikes" after all legal impositions have entistled. The Dock Department's action is movement in the right direction.

"that would be out of the ques- Some days ago Weather-Distorter "that would be out of the questUnquestionally it would be quite Dunn promised us a thonler storm. It that was built by W. W. Aster for Gen. It that was built by W. W. Aster for Gen. Earle, but recommend the General's inability to pay rent. It is one of the most magnificently appointed houses in the out of the question. Mr. Platt is quite was to have been a regular spoilygesout of any question with which New ter, and we all expected that old Thor York has anything to do. If Senator would rip the shingles right off the roof O'Connor does not mean to be humorous, of mar sky with it. We have now been work he is singularly opaque. That it is, waiting three days for that thunder-however, a vein of humor which he is storm, and there hasn't been enough working is suggested by his further rumbling of the clouds to deafen a pneuremark in the same interview from matte tire's communing with the granite draw the smile of even the Tioga giving us a grand jolly, as the Howery belle says. It kind of did a pas seul on An up-the-State newspaper remarks timed out of sight again, and at the morning. The animal ran up and down. corrupt." For so, But does it tops. We are afraid that thunder-storm metropolitan police force is due? New York and New Jersey Bridge. As the York's greatest troubles come out of the appreciate made by 'The Evening on Sunday the fourst that she is bossed too much at house and ruled too much at Bridge Company, the publication of Albany. If the Constitutional Convention is faithful to its sworn duty, the aprocess of arguing for a point aiready city will see light at last. In the hope admitted. However, the communication of better things to come, the uprising thouse of the editor are welcome evidence of good citizens to already begun, and the hoverhead spanes is arreagn.

ing on Fire-Escapes.

ing to Keep Cool.

with a Dying Babe.

The Subscriptions.

Previously acknowledged ... H. L. L., Arverne, L. 1. Mrs. J. J., Arverne, L. 1. Jennie.

If Croker Sician says about the poor children, who "It is hard to describe the effect hot weather has on the little ones in the King's Daughters.

To the Editor: Inclosed find $5 for the Sick Dables' Fund from the "Hopeful Circle of King's Daughters" of the First Bantlet Church in Pierrepont street. BERTHA LONGINOTHAM, Treasurer, 228 Adams street, Brooklyn, N. Y.

Arverne Friends.

Inclosed please find mite for the Sick Bables Fund: 11 from Mr. H. L. L.; 11 from Mrs. J. J. and 31 from Mrs. B. L. AVEHNE, L. I.

To the Editor

A Fair on a Stoop To the Editor:

the poor bables.
LULU LYONS,
BIRDIE GARONS,
WILLIE WIZEMANN.

Four Little Friends. To the Editor

Here included you will find $1.05 for the Sick Station' Fund from four Willis avenue friends, made by selling little articles. WILLIS AVENUE

With $1.

From little Raby Dorothes to a little sister baby ----

NEW NETHERLAND LEASED.

W. W. Astor's Big Hotel to Be Opened About Sept. 1.

Stafford was seen this morning, said: "Of course, we have not yet time to consider our plans very but the hotel will be open by I I am not at liberty to make terms public, but they are very stactory. We will make several nges in the house."

SHOT A MAD DOG.

A mad dog, with dripping fance, cre-

WORLDLINGS.

California has more artesian wells than any

PITY THESE BABIES! MURDER INTENDED? DID HE TAKE POISON?

Manter's Strange Death.

Killed Him.

Store Boycotted.

Whether Herman Manter, who died at Manter was twenty-three years old.

Few customers came to the new own-

ACCUSED BY HIS DAUGHTER

Buckridge's Alleged Double Life

Discovered by a Child.

He Was Held for Trial on Wife No.

1's Complaint.

man of thirty-one years, was committed

o prison on a charge of bigamy by Jus-to-day. The complaint was made by his first wife, Annie, to whom he was married Nov. 24, 1880, and by whom he

SLEPT WHILE FIRE RAGED.

Watchman in a Rag Shop Has Narrow Escape from Death.

ing in "Smith's Old Rag House," a two-

Three years ago, at just such an hour in the morning, Adolphus was sleeping in the self-same room, when the rear wall of the house fell out. At that time, too, a policeman had to awaken the man and tell him to get out.

years, named Marion.

oming home regularly.

only five months ago.

the State just as quickly as it can get A Fund Doctor Finds Them Sleep- Spooner and Buckner Boys Held Physicians Puzzled by Herman for Drowning Young Costrillo.

> Hot Days Spent in the Streets Try- Witnesses Say They Pushed Him Overboard and Under Water.

One Woman Sitting on a Doorstep Possibly the Outcome of a Boys' Married Only Five Months and His Old Feud.

> of 343 East One Hundred and Fourteenth 129 Alien street, this morning, committed suicide or died of natural causes is a William Spooner, thirteen years old years old, of 337 East One Hundred and Fourteenth street, who are charged by 150 two other lads with having caused the death by drowning of eight-year-old Samuel Courtillo, of 252 East One Hundred and Fourteenth street, last Monday. were committed to the custody of the Coroner by Justice Welde in Harlem Court this morning.
>
> The body of the drowned boy came to the surface yesterday afternoon at the exact spot where, according to witnesses, it had gone down a few days These witnesses are Luciano Salvano, o'clock last evening Dr. Kane was called.

He considered that Manter was in a bad way, so he had Dr. Price, who lives in the same street, called in for consultation. Both physicians were puzzled at Manter's symptoms.

At il o'clock Dr. Fishman, of 118 Rivington street, the third physician, was called. At that time Manter was unconscious. He remained so until he died, two hours later.

Dr. Fishman went to the Eldridge street station later and sast that in his opinion the man had taken some kind of poison. A policeman was sent to guard the body until a coroner could be called to perform an autopsy.

Mrs. Manter believes that her husband died of natural causes.

SHOT HUSBAND AND WIFE.

Then Negro Williams Was Range to a Pole for His Crime.

(By Associated Press.) GREENVILLE, Tex., June 29 .- The town of Sulphur Springs, thirty-two miles cart of here, is in a high state of xcitement over the assassination o Mrs. Al Waitz and the shooting of he husband, who is mortally wounded, by John Williams, a negro, who was once in their employ. The deed was committed about 9 o'clock last night.

inlited about 2 o'clock last night.

Mr. Waitz is the proprietor of a dairy two miles south of Sulphur Springs. While he and Mrs. Waitz were at the corn pen the negro stole into the house, procured a shorgin, lay in wait and shot them Most of the charge took effect in the body of Mrs. Waitz, killing her instantly, while her husband is so dangerously wounded that he will not recover.

The negro fled, but was captured by the Sheriff's posse near a small station on the Cotton Relt Railroad. He was conveyed back to Sulphur Springs, where an immense mob secured the negro and swung him from a near-by telegraph pole. Several hundred shots were fired into his swinging body.

WANTS HER LOST HUSBAND.

Mrs. Tobin Thinks He May Have Been Murdered for Money.

Mrs. Mary Tobin, of School street. Yonkers, called at Police Headquarters this morning to make inquiries for her husband, who has been missing from his Hotel New Netherland has home for the last two weeks. Yesterday lars for the privilege of landing goods passed into the hands of Stafford & afternoon Mrs. Tobin received a letter Whitaker, proprietors of the Imperial Hotel, and by Sept. I the magnificent is hostelry will again be thrown open to the public. A lease for a period of ten years has been signed, and the work of refurnishing and refitting the big hotel. She was told at the hospital that her husband had never been there. Mrs. She was told at the hospital that her husband had never been there. Mrs. The New Netherland is the house that was built by W. W. Astor for Gen. The New Netherland is the house that was built by W. W. Astor for Gen. She was told at the husband has either met with some arcident and in confined in some institution, or disc he has been follily dealt with. There is no reason, she says, why he should remain away, as his home life was happy.

The was temperate and industrious having worked in Flagge's hat factory in having worked in Flagge's hat factory in the first that the husband has either met with some arcident and in confined in some institution, or disc he has been follily dealt with There is no reason, she says, why he should remain away, as his home life was happy.

He was temperate and incomplete that the hospital that her husband had never been discussed in some institution, or disc he has been follily dealt with There is no reason. She was told at the hospital that her husband had never been discussed in some institution, or disc he has been follily dealt with There is no reason. She was told at the hospital that her husband had never been discussed in some institution, or disc he has been should remain a she with the mospital that her husband had never been discussed in some institution, or disc he has been she as he has been should remain a she has her husband had never been discussed in some institution, or disc he has been should remain a she has her husband had never been discussed in some institution. Whitaker, proprietors of the Imperial bearing a New York postmark and Y inkers for nincisen years. He took considerable sum of money with hi when he left home.

PRICE OF CLAMS MAY GO UP.

That Is, if Policemen Keep or Finding Penris in Them.

Police on John Brown, of the General Seasions Building, exhibited this morning what he believes to be a genuine pearl, the size of a pea, which his sor George found while eating clams has evening.
The find resembles very much in colo the one discovered under similar of cumstances by Folloeman Newschaff, the other day. Policeman Brown is ing to show it to a jeweller to-day. It believes it to be word, between 50 ar 170.

believes it to be worth between $50 and $70.

Brown lives at $13 West One Hundred and Forty-sixth treet. He sent out last evening and purchased $2 cents worth of clams from a peddler in the neighborhood known as "Larry "George the son, ate several of the bivalves, but soon complained of samething hard in a space between two tests, where a large tooth had been. He extracted the something with great difficulty and found the prize. The policeman said this morning that it would be wise not to make the matter public, inasmuch as it might have a tendency to increase the price of clams.

· LETTERS.

This column is open to everyone to rentilate, typer-complaint to male, a prievance to ventilate, typer-mation to give, a subject of peneral interest to dis-cuss or a public service to acknowledge, and what can put the idea into less them 100 words. Long ietters cannot be printed.

The Liberty of Crime. To the Editor Unable to Tell What It Was that I have been very much interested in the con troversy in your letter column anent the respec-tive advantages of America and England. Being an Englishman visiting your country (my visit-has extended over five months. I must say that my eyes have been opened to such an extent by the letters in question, and by a short study of the but the thread is coarse, making a cool subjects discussed therein, that I am simply amused. America is always admiringly held up ernments as an exemplary pattern of what country should be, and the freedom of American possible to realize. But if the stories at present filling your newspapers be true-and I support they must be-it appears to me that you are more tendance and the police who investigated to be pitied as a nation than any other people I know of, and as to comparing the freedo America to that of England, it is simply He was a tailor, and until two weeks america to that of England, it is simply like ago lived with his wife, Jepnie, at 93 putting a ton of iron into one able of a balance Sheriff street. The couple were married and an enuce of feathers into the other, America When the tailoring business get so duli corruption, immorality, extortion, swindling, di that Manter could not make a living he laterial despetism, and ever unpunished murder decided to open a store. When Charles are related of your high public officials in nearly Heinberg offered to sell him the little candy store at 120 Allen street for $150 mystery to an Englishman, however, is that these Manter grasped the opportunity, bought the place, and he and his wife entered swindle in connection with the Central Pacific Railway. Of course, the story must be true of ers of the place, and after a few days ers of the place, and after a few days Manter decided that he had been swindled. This idea took such a hold on him that he became sick. A week ago he took to his bed. It is claimed that a boycott was hanging over the store.

Mrs. Manter was left to mind the place. Business did not improve, and when she would step into the rear room where her husband lay in his bed, and answering his anxious inquiries say that business was bad, very bad, Martin would be visibly affected.

The man got worse yesterday, No. you would not print it. As I understand it, the particulars of this swindle have been known for connected with it were alive. Anyway it known new, and "The World" says that one them is still living. Why on earth is he allowed to be at large? It seems to me that such freedom as this man has, the freedom protect would be visibly affected.

The man got worse yesterday, Nobody knew what was the matter with him. He had a fever and drank a great deal of ice water, Mrs. Lipschets, a neighbor, said that a physician should be called to attend the man, So at 7 o'clock last evening Dr. Kane was called. Newark, N. J.

Comic Duct -- Up to Date. 'Oh! I am a Captain bold," "And I am his Ward-

"And both together we'll manage the weather The troubles that threaten us, two."
never have touched a cent." "For the mone was given to me.

"And every one knows (take your thumb from your nose)
That it came spontaneously!"

m far from a millionaire." ("Do you see "If you ask how we got real estate-such strict Democrat. "And green-goods or saloons have never been To swell our exchequer! Verb. sat."

Pantata? Why, mercy! what's that?" "Such language we really must bar." "For in spite of temptation to ruin our na tion, We've always remained—what we are!"

To prove what we say we are eager." "Oh! yes "And show every land, when we get on the That our force is 'the finest 'nd best!' "
LA TOUCHE HANCOCK.

Has Her Eye on Him.

World" asking if he would be wise to marry a dressmaker? He don't know that I know that he Charles Buckridge, a small, red-faced ing the answers, and evelng me cross-eyed to see If I could really be so had as his advisers say. Some said do, but most of 'em said don't, and I'll answer for it that he won't; at least, not this one. I am a practical housekeeper and a practical dressmaker. If I am to support myself I don't want a man on hand howling for regular married Nov. 24, 1880, and by whom he has had six children. Only one of them is living. She is a bright girl of thirteen find me willing to devote myself to him and the housekeeping, and able to save his money. I'll be Buckridge is a drummer for a butter thouse, and gave this reason for not no woman can be both, especially after she's earned the title of "mother." The women who coming home regularly.

In October last, it is alleged, he made the acquaintance of Mary O'Connor, twenty-three years old, the daughter of a druggist, doing business at Forty-second street and Ninth avenue.

It is stated that she was going down to ber work as saleswoman in a drygoeds house, and happened to be taken past her station. She had only four cents with her and asked Buckridge, who was seated next her, if he would give her a penny, Buckridge gave her the penny, and through this an acquain.

Earned the title of "mother." The women who tity or nu a business and bring up a family are apt to make a bad job of both and a physical wide with the world I say they're left slone in the world I say they're brave to try and Sli when a strapping young fellow asks his wife to begin matrimony with a double load, and more, starts in to ask strangers if they think he's chosen a trade for his wife that will support him comfortably, why—well, he can count me out. Am I right?

who was seated next her if he would give her a penny. Buckridge gave her the penny, and through this an acquaintanceship was started. He called upon her, representing himself as a single man, it is alleged, and after a short courtship made her his wife. He was known as Charles Buckley.

The couple went to live in a furnished room at 302 East Sixty-ninth street. Recently the parents over and introduce them. He made some excuse and promised that he would on an early occasion.

Last Friday be came home to his second wife with his daughter, Marion, it is stated, and passed her off as his brother's child.

Marion thought that everything was not quite right, and before leaving the house she told that Buckridge was her father and not her uncle. On reaching home she told her mother what she had seen, and gave her the location of the house.

Mrs. Buckridge secured a warrant on Wilceday. Last night Buckridge to pleaded to her not to send him to prison, saying that wife No. 2 was willing to give him up, and he would never remain away from home again.

Mrs. Buckridge did not relent, however, and he was locked up.

SLEPT WHILE FIRE RAGED. is certainly one of the saddest cases one could less indulge in. There is some mysteri-

To the Editor:

I am very sorry "E. C. F." has to live in a ped cream and candied violets. furnished room, but I can't condole with him, I don't know what they are like. I tender wood, N. J., and get acquainted with some o the girls who live there. Of course, some of them want the earth, but then again there are some who would be satisfied with much less. Fire broke out at 2 o'clock this mornstory brick building at 30 Hester street and if he is sober and steady, as he claims, I don't think he would have much trouble in se-curing the kind of a girl he wants. The place has been a rag-shop for The place has been a rag-shop for thirty-seven years. For six years Max Bernstein has conducted it.

The fire started among the rags, and the smoke was pouring in big clouds out of the windows when Policeman Reilly saw it and sent in an alarm.

The policeman was well acquainted with the place, and knew that Jacob Adolphus, one of Bernstein's helpers, was in the habit of sleeping in a rear room. So he rushed into the building after the alarm had been sent in and broke down the door. He found Adolphus sleeping soundly on a bale of rags. A. C. S., Englewood, N. J.

As Badly Off as "Berenice."

To the Editor: I can fully sympathize with "Berenice," as I am in the same boat. I am in my twentieth year, and still I am not allowed to go out with gentlemen. Not long ago I had the chance of keeping company with a gentleman I thought something of, but on account of my father's strictness I have to stay at home while som other girl has the pleasure of his company. Is that right? My father says a girl has no right to go cut alone with a gentleman unless she is engaged to him. Is he right? MARIE.

Only Two Weeks Married. To the Editor:

MRS. RODGERS ACCUSED. I am a young married man, twenty years of sge, and have been married just two weeks. Elizabeth Rodgers is under arrest at Talk about married life being a failure. Well, Bellevue Hospital charged with committing a criminal operation upon her-self, after working hard all day. It's all very well to read about a man's wife who makes Dr. F. W. Fabricum, the physician at-

Lillputian designers and clothiers are dressing the little highnesses in colored silk gamps and not gowns. The net is like the old-fashioned bobinet, in weave, airy and rather durable dress. The fash on is to have the skirts touch ground, but wise, kind mothers will be out of fashion whenever the child's comfort is molested.

Sunshine Cake.

Cream one cup of butter; add two ups of sugar and beat to a cream then add one cup of milk, the yolks o eleven eggs beaten very light and three cups of flour, which has been sifted three times; beat until light and smooth add two teaspoonfuls of baking-pow turn into a greased Turk's head and bake forty-five minutes in a mod erately quick oven.

Washing and Cleaning Gloves. The sc-called washing gloves are an excellent choice for utility pusposes all Summer, as they can be cleaned once and again by washing them in water that is more than warm, but not scald ing hot, using a bit of pure white soap in the process. It is best to wash them pon the hands, as the chamois is less ikely to shrink in drying. Wash and then rinse in clear water, and then dry by rubbing with a Turkish or other soft, rough towel. For kid gloves of light color, that are but slightly solled but not stained, there is no better mode of freshening than to wind a bit of oiled silk around the finger, rubbing vigor ously to remove all traces of the mark Any woman who tests this easy way of cleaning kid gloves will be sure to keep thereafter a strip of silk in her posse tion. A quarter, or even an eighth, of yard is enough to purchase at once, as in fancy dry-goods houses, where it is sold, it is kept moist in a large roll, and is thus very pliable. Moisten the silk, however, when using.

Clam Broth. Clam broth, which is highly recom mended, not only for invalids, but as steady diet for those inclined to grow stout, is made by simmering choppe clams in their own broth with an equa quantity of water, the broth strained through fine muslin and seasoned with pepper. If for an invalid, hot milk may be added when the broth is strained Serve with toasted crackers.

Hygiene of the Eye. When the eyes are tired, rest them.

A little salt in cool water, filtered did. through filtering paper, used as a wash, will be found refreshing, but a sea bath or a sail is the best remedy. Never sit facing a strong light. Cross lights flash-lights and varying colored lights weary and strien the sight. Reading in a car is a habit that only the thought ous sympathy between the head and had proof absolute and positive of my dear one's feet, by virtue of which a foot-bath will often soothe aching temples and eves. Night work that is not absolutely necessary is dangerous, and the best book that ever was written is not worth reading in a poor light.

Soak one-fourth of a box of gelatine i one-half cup of cold water for half an hour. Whip one pint of cream stiff; add to the cream two-thirds of a cup of of powdered sugar; to the gelatine add one teaspoonful of violet flavoring, one half teaspoonful of vanilla, and For the coloring, do as directed for Bavarian creams. Turn into a mould, pack in salt and ice for two hours, and when ready to serve garnish with whip

The Late Rose Terry Cooke. The late Rose Terry Cooke was not favorite in the little Conceticut town I which she spent her life. Her sar castic tongue was much feared there was always a sense of relief This unfortunate tendency is what she heraelf speaks of in one of her delight ful stories. "Keen, practical insight, she says there, "is not the most softening trait for a woman to possess It is iron and steel in the soul that does not burn with love mighty and outflowing enough to fuse all other elements in its own glory."

Cream Pie.

a half of powdered sugar, and beat with a spoon until the mixture is if cut thin they will cook in an hour and creamy. Add one tablespoonful of a quarter, but if only cut in halves it lemon juice and beat three minutes will take two hours and a half. longer. Put two cupfuls of sifted flou into the sieve, mix with it two level teaspoonfuls of baking powder; add one The policeman said this morning that the matter prince and Belgium, elactions are always held on Sanday

The first Mile printed with a date was furnished by Faust, the German father of typegraphy, to left.

Mars is ordinarily isl, 600,000 miles away from the earth, but every fifteen years it approachs to a distance of 25 000,000 miles.

You read The Evenlang World?

The Evenlang World?

The first Mile printed with a date was furnished by Faust, the German father of typegraphy, to left.

The first Mile printed with a date was furnished by Faust, the German father of typegraphy, to left.

The first Mile printed with a date was furnished by Faust, the German father of typegraphy, to left.

The first Mile printed with a date was furnished by Faust, the German father of typegraphy, to left.

The first Mile printed with a date was furnished by Faust, the German father of typegraphy, to left.

The first Mile printed with a date was furnished by Faust, the German father of typegraphy, to left.

The Cost of Housekeeping on the physician at two deep buttered tin plactae. Four the first, every morning, but when it comes to the point, they are not "in it".

A YOUNG HUSHAND.

The Cost of Housekeeping.

The Cost of Housekeeping.

The Cost of Housekeeping.

The Cost of Housekeeping.

The two round in the part for twenty min the first, as a filt was a servant employed by Mrs. Hills, at the point, they are not "in it".

The Cost of Housekeeping.

The Cost of Housekeeping.

The Cost of Housekeeping.

The Cost of Housekeeping.

The two round in the part for the first, every morning but when it comes to the point, they are not "in it".

A YOUNG HUSHAND.

The Cost of Housekeeping.

The Cost of Housekeeping.

The Cost of Housekeeping.

The two round as any twenty min the first, was a furnished by measure and the first, every morning but when it comes to the point, they are not "in it".

A Silk Stocking case is made by measure the point, they are not "in it".

The Cost of Housekeeping.

The Cost of Housekeeping.

The We

bowl three tablespoonfuls of flour, two thirds of a cup of sugar, one large egg and half a sait spoonful of sait. When this is light and smooth stir it into the bolling milk. I teat well for two minutes, cover the boller and cook the ream for fifteen minutes, stirring frequently. Flavor with half a teaspoon-ful of vanilla or Jemon extract. Cool and use. This cream is more delicate if one tablespoonfu! of flour be omitted and two eggs be used.

Straw Hat Famine in England. England is said to be on the verge of straw hat famine, and in anticipation of such a calamity the factories are now running on increased time. The same thing happened jast year, when for six weeks straw hats were not to be purchased at any price. American hats are more popular in England than those of home manufacture, as they are lighters in weight and more says ish and graceful

Hashed Brown Potatoes. Chop two cold bolled potatoes rather fine. Take a good-sized saute panan omelet pan is best-put in two tablespoonfuls of butter. When hot turn in the potatoes; dust with sait and pepper, and with a limber knife hat them down into a smooth sheet. Stand the pan over moderate fire and could slowly for bout ten minutes. Now begin at the handle side of the pan and roll them ove and pat each roll down until you get the opposite side of the pan and the to tatoes are in the shape of an omele Put your serving dish over the pan and turn it upside down, so that the under side will be on top, and they are read; to serve.

A New Color.

Cyclamen is a new color which will be popular about the time the June bloom. It is a bluish mauve, peculiar tint, just between a cherry ar nagenta. "Marie Louise" blue is an other new shade. It is somewha brighter than the cadet blue. Pale yel low is also to be the vogue, and so i green, which suggests the first tender leaves of lettuce. Tans and variou shades of brown are holding their own bravely.

Brenkfast Fruit. A squeeze of lemon juice on a dish of bananas, prunes, apple sauce, canned peaches or silver forked pineapple is an improvement. Breakfast fruits ar better for a little bitter sweet. Etiquette for Girls. It is a lady's place to recognize a gen tleman first, as it depends on her wheth er the acquaintance continues or not.

In entering a room the gentleman ways follows the young lady. Always rise for an older person. The young lady always seats hergel first before any gentleman will do so.
In making introductions the you man is always presented to the gir never the other way round.

their permission, and then say: "Mis D., I want to present (or introduce) Ms A. to you."

It is sufficient to acknowledge an i roduction by a simple bow, unless the is some special reason for more cordia

Never introduce any young man t forms. Handshaking is not in good for in an introduction in a ball-room. Feminine Sense of Subjection. John Stuart Mills says that "worr that they have convinced themselv that they enjoy it." And it is said the some Russian peasant women grow jea. ous of their husbands as wanting as regularly and as often as they one fidelity if they do not beat their wive

Paraley Omelet. Drop two eggs into a bowl; beat broken, but not light; add two tax spoonfuls of cold or lukewarm was butter; then, with the spatula, lift the cooked egg from the edges, let the uncooked part run under onto pan, continuing the lifting until whole is of a soft, creamy consists Place where it will brown; just bei folding sprinkle with one tablespo of chopped parsley. Fold, season

Spinach omelet is made as abomitting the paraley, and adding or three drops of onion extract to Kitchen Time-Table. Early peas will boll in half or thr of an hour; they are best puarters on with cold water; add salt wh nearly done. String beans require two hours nore; the first water should always poured off. Lima beans will cook in three-quarte of an hour; put on to cook in hot wat of an hour; use cold water. Spinach will boll in fifteen minutes use hot water. Summer beats will boil in one hours use hot water.

Asparagus will bell in three-quarte

Winter beets will require three hours: use hot water. Corn will boil in twenty miny use hot water. Onions will boll in one and a ha nour; use hot water. New potatoes will bell in one-h hour. Dried corn must be soaked over nie

Allow to cook one hour. Summer squash is better steamed, a Beat three eggs very light with an putting it in water makes it too watery; egg beater, add to them one cupful and cook three-quarter of an hour. Turnips require a long time to cook;

One Woman's Pin Money.

Among curious methods of raising gill of cold water to the beaten egg and money may be noted the following, dissugar, then sift in the flour and bak- covered in a foreign periodical for woming powder and beat well. Pour a lit- en. A Frenchweman advertises that she more than half this mixture into will, for a small consideration, send ditwo deep buttered tin plates. Pour the rections for keeping one's bong in curl, remainder into a small cake pan. Bake sae adds that the method is a simple one Silk and Bobinet.